

Year in Review 07-08

The Laboratory's Technical Representative Program will promote better management and oversight of subcontractor performance. It will help ensure more concise adherence by the subcontractor to work scope and better cost and time efficiencies in work performance.

Subcontractor program introduced to help promote better management, oversight